A History of Portage Indiana

"As the park department staff pondered over what would be the best use for the Countryside buildings, the concept of a community historical society started to take shape. Carl Fisher, Terry Jarosak, Irlene Holley of the Portage Public library and a few other local residents founded such a society. Their first public meeting was held on November 10, 1987 and was attended by approximately fifty people. Jaclyn Macedo, a Portage teacher, was elected to be their first president."
